ABOUT CATAWBA VALLEY MEDICAL CENTER

Since 1967, Catawba Valley Medical Center has built strong relationships with the people, businesses and communities throughout the Catawba Valley. As the region's largest not-for-profit community hospital, it is the CVMC mission to improve the health status of the Catawba Valley.

CVMC does this by providing high-quality health-care services, as well as by supporting organizations dedicated to improving the standard of living. CVMC exists to heal and comfort patients, to promote and foster a healthier Catawba Valley, and to assure access to health care to all who need it — not to create profits and return dividends to shareholders.
