To Whom It May Concern:

I would recommend Enterprise Systems to any company evaluating a new telephone system. General Welding invested in Nortel's Norstar phone system and voice mail six years ago on recommendation from Sean Pyykola. It has served us well and with very few service problems. The team at enterprise systems handles our service calls quickly and lets us know what they've done to fix any problem.

The large paging system we have in our welding bays are subject to extreme conditions and when we need replacement horns or related equipment or new cabling they get the job done. I will continue to use Enterprise Systems for all my communications needs and I give them my highest marks for customer satisfaction.

Sincerely,

Mark Fajkus, Treasurer, CPA
