

Enterprise Systems Corporation Selected to Install Chroma Oil and Gas, LP BCM 50 Expansion and Upgrade

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Rodney Hyde
President
713-343-1222
rhyde@enter-sys.com
<http://www.enter-sys.com>

HOUSTON, TEXAS – August, 2008 – It was announced that Chroma Oil and Gas, LP of Houston, Texas has selected Enterprise Systems Corporation to perform an installation of a BCM 50 expansion. This project includes the installation of 10 digital sets with 10 voicemail boxes. Enterprise Systems Corporation also upgraded their BCM 50 in this project.

ABOUT ENTERPRISE SYSTEMS CORPORATION

Houston, Texas Based Enterprise Systems Corporation services and supports Nortel voice and data solutions including CS1000, Meridian 1, Succession, CallPilot, Symposium, Contact Center, Meridian Mail, Norstar and BCM. Competencies include TDM circuit switched telephony, VoIP and wireless engineering and deployment.

ABOUT CHROMA OIL AND GAS, LP

Chroma Oil & Gas, LP pursues a balanced strategy of acquisition, exploitation and exploration. We utilize proprietary pattern recognition and visualization technology to strengthen decision making and risk management. Drawing upon management and staff experience, we are generating value by implementing a strategy with the following salient components:

- Focused acquisition, exploitation and exploration in the Gulf Coast Basin
- Utilization of cutting edge technology, including proprietary pattern recognition and visualization
- Empowerment of key staff and management as business owners
- Conservative shepherding of capital resources
- Conducting our activities with the highest business and ethical standards